AMIT Kennedy Junior and Senior High School

📍 Address: Shikun Amidar, P.O. Box 1600, Acco 24104

☎ Phone: 04-981-1547

👤 Principal: Etti Zabary

AMIT Kennedy serves the Acco and Western Galilee communities and currently has 405 students enrolled. The school prepares students for a complete bagrut (matriculation exam) in academic subjects. The bagrut success rate has dramatically increased over the past few years, and the school currently has a 90% success rate. Girls and boys study separately to facilitate personal development and stronger academic achievement. Community service is emphasized at the school, and students engage in a wide range of civic activities. The school collaborates with several organizations and foundations providing additional academic programs for students in leadership, science, technology and cyber.

AMIT Rambam Religious Elementary School

📍 Address: Yehuda HaLevi 18, Acco

☎ Phone: 04-991-2424

👤 Principal: Sigalit Barzilai

AMIT Rambam was founded in 1956, and currently has over 240 students in grades 1-6. In 2010-2011 the school won the national education prize awarded by the Ministry of Education. The school strives to give students, parents and faculty a sense of belonging, safety and security, and it nurtures a love of Israel and encourages students to keep the mitzvot. The school believes in recognizing children's strengths and differences and giving each an opportunity for self-expression and accomplishment, while fostering a deep sense of mutual responsibility. The school has a comprehensive arts curriculum that includes music, theater, communications, visual art, dance and creative writing.

Afula

AMIT Yehuda Junior and Senior High School

Address: Yehoshua 20, P.O. Box 39, Afula 18254

Phone: 04-642-1587

Principal: Eli Nissenholtz

AMIT Yehuda was established in 1944. Students come from Afula as well as neighboring communities such as Migdal HaEmek, Nazareth Illit and area moshavim. AMIT Yehuda, the only religious high school in Afula, has a total of 380 students in grades 7-12, and has a diverse population including Ethiopian immigrants and sabras from all socioeconomic backgrounds.

AMIT Yehuda is in the process of becoming an all-boys school. Students concentrate on intense Torah study and academic studies, and participate in an army cadet-training program.

AMIT Yeshivat Hesder

Address: Yerushalyim 28, P.O. Box 2217, Afula

Phone: 04-659-1431

Principal: Rabbi Yitzhak Ben-Pazi

The AMIT Yeshivat Hesder opened its doors on September 1, 2008. The yeshiva has 80 students, as well as a number of students currently serving in the Israel Defense Forces. Students come from cities, towns and villages in northern Israel and remain relatively close to home while at the yeshiva. AMIT Yeshivat Hesder is not only an institution of Torah learning and Zionist values; it also works to strengthen the city's religious schools and the entire community.

This is the first Yeshivat Hesder to partner with a municipality. It is a community yeshiva with full cooperation with the garin Torani (religious Zionists who settle in underdeveloped communities to help strengthen the community through social and religious programming). Programs planned and run by the yeshiva for the community include evening Torah study classes and special activities and seminars for the holidays.

Yeshivat AMIT Ashdod

Address: Hativat HaNegev 7, Ashdod

Principal: Rabbi Shalom Malool

Phone: 08-802-0175

Yeshivat AMIT Ashdod welcomed its first class of 25 7th-grade students in September 2012. The yeshiva has added a grade per year and currently serves 210 students in grades 7-11. The yeshiva serves a diverse student body, including gifted as well as challenged students who are united by their common bonds and commitment to Torah learning. Yeshivat AMIT Ashdod strives for excellence in all aspects of school life. Chesed and involvement in the community are an integral part of the yeshiva.

AMIT Bet Ashdod Junior and Senior High School

Address: Mordei HaGeta'ot 16, Ashdod

Phone: 08-852-1802

Principal: Sima Peretz

AMIT Mekif Bet Ashdod serves 230 students in grades 7-12 in a coeducational setting. The school takes a holistic approach to education, with an emphasis on nurturing the intellectual, emotional, physical, social, creative and spiritual development of each student. Faculty members believe that students have an intrinsic desire to learn and create, and see parents as partners in the teaching and learning process.

AMIT Yud Ashdod Junior and Senior High School

Address: Nachal Snir 1, Ashdod

Phone: 08-867-5958

Principal: Ido Aharonovitz

AMIT Yud Ashdod serves 785 students in grades 7-12. The student body includes sabras and recent French immigrants. The cornerstones of education at AMIT Mekif Yud are individual attention and the belief in each student's ability. Faculty members set personal examples through their dedication to students, the school's mission and a religious way of life. The school strives to motivate students to become active and contributing members of their community and the State of Israel, and gives them the necessary tools and skills to succeed in their personal lives.

AMIT Ashdod Religious High School for Girls

 Principal: Tzipi Deener

AMIT Ashdod was founded in 2015 with one 7th-grade class of girls. The school will add a grade each year until it is a complete junior and senior high school. Fifty-one girls are currently enrolled in grades 7 and 8. In addition to offering girls a regular academic curriculum, the school focuses on the arts and sciences.

Midreshet AMIT Be'er Ashdod

 Principal: Tamar Biton

Midreshet AMIT Be'er Ashdod, a sister seminary to Midreshet AMIT Be'er Yeruham, accepted its first class of students in September 2016. The seminary is open to female high school graduates who wish to study Torah and engage in community service before and after their military service. Students spend the year learning and serving the Ashdod community before enlisting in the army. The girls live together in an Ashdod neighborhood and participate in immigrant absorption, tutorials for schoolchildren, individual mentoring, special education, civic landscaping, post-graduation prep for high school students, a bat mitzvah program and much more. The heart of the new midrasha is the Beit Midrash, where the young women learn Gemara, Bible, Midrash, Jewish philosophy, halacha, hasidism and the weekly Torah portion. One afternoon a week, the Beit Midrash is open to the Ashdod community.

Ashkelon

AMIT Fred Kahane Technological High School Ashkelon

 Address: Shchunat Gan HaVeradim, P.O. Box 9061

 Phone: 08-676-2977

 Principal: Yitzhak Abarjel

The AMIT Fred Kahane Technological High School was established for students who have not met academic requirements or have been expelled from their regular schools. There are approximately 265 students in grades 9-12, plus an additional program known as “grade 13.” Students have the option to study toward full matriculation or toward a technology or vocational diploma. The school employs a holistic educational intervention program that enables the educational staff to help each student reach his/her potential. The school continues to offer the highest level of vocational studies in business administration, hair design, culinary art and automotive electronics. The school offers personal attention, small classes and a dedicated teaching staff.

In 2015, AMIT Fred Kahane launched a small junior college program (grade 13). Students study for one year to extend their vocational training and then enlist in the army or go on to perform national service.

AMIT Bet Ashkelon Junior and Senior High School

 Address: Derech Ben Tzvi 6, Ashkelon

 Phone: 08-672-3213

 Principal: Yehuda Cohen

AMIT Bet Ashkelon Junior and Senior High School joined the AMIT Network at the beginning of the 2014-2015 school year. The school has 615 students in grades 7-12. Established in 1960, Ashkelon Bet has a long history in the city and has seen its thousands of graduates integrate into all areas of Israeli society.

Prior to 2014, the school had a reputation for low test scores and fluctuating student enrollment. The AMIT Network was called in to offer its support and expertise in school management, increasing bagrut scores and teacher training. One of AMIT’s goals is to turn this school, the only religious junior and senior high school in Ashkelon, into a viable and attractive option for post-primary religious students.

The size and diversity of the school enable it to offer students a wide range of study tracks, so that each student’s education is tailored to his/her needs, strengths and interests. Study tracks offered at the school include biotechnology, communication engineering, physics, biology, chemistry, Arabic and Amharic. As a religious high school, Ashkelon Bet combines Judaic studies with Derech Eretz, and strives to bring students closer to Torah and Judaism.

Beersheva

AMIT Wasserman Junior and Senior High School

 Address: Yehuda HaLevi 2, Beersheva

 Phone: 08-641-4407; 08-641-4403

 Principal: Rabbi Elisha Peleg

AMIT Wasserman Junior and Senior High School has 1,352 students in grades 7-12. Students include native-born Israelis and immigrants from the former Soviet Union and Ethiopia. The school accepts any student in Beersheva who wants a religious education. AMIT Wasserman strives for academic excellence by opening new study tracks and emphasizing research projects in physics, computers and life sciences. At the same time, the school makes every effort to encourage academically weaker students and facilitate their scholastic success, in keeping with the belief that education is the key to their social advancement.

The school invests in every student's religious and social values. The Beit Midrash program for the school's teachers has resulted in a greater investment in values among students as well.

Today, all students are involved in communal activities, and the school climate instills the spirit of Jewish values.

A unique program offers classes in advanced sciences and mathematics for high-achieving students. Students in this program have won multiple prizes in national and international science competitions, earning publicity and honors for themselves, the school, Beersheva and the entire AMIT Network.

Dina and Moses Dyckman Ulpanat AMIT Beersheva

 Address: Wingate Street, P.O. Box 234, Beersheva 84101

 Phone: 08-623-9031; 08-627-7769

 Principal: Noa HaCohen

The Dina and Moses Dyckman Ulpanat AMIT serves approximately 450 girls from Beersheva and nearby towns. Matriculation-level classes at the school include literature, communications, biology, biotechnology, physics and robotics. In fact, the robotics team has been in a host of competitions in recent years.

The ulpana has one of the leading faculties in the country, and it nurtures leadership among students. The school's focus on scholastic excellence and individual potential, as well as its extensive extra-curricular educational activities and involvement in community life make it a strong draw for students looking for a well-rounded education and high school experience.

The student body is diverse, socioeconomically and academically. Enrollment includes special-education students and immigrants from Ethiopia, Brazil and Cuba. A personalized program is designed for all students, enabling them to develop their strengths and achieve success. The ulpana is one of the few schools in Israel that has an exchange program with a Jewish high school in Montreal, Canada.

AMIT Daisy Berman Yeshiva Beersheva

 Address: Mivtza Yoav 5. P.O. Box 798, Beersheva 84106

 Phone: 08-627-8171; 08-627-3985

 Principal: Sivan Sror

Yeshivat AMIT Beersheva has 435 students in grades 7-12. The yeshiva was founded as a [?] Torani yeshiva for boys who are interested in religious studies but prefer to live at home. Students must pass a rigorous entrance exam and interview. The yeshiva aims for excellence in academics, and religious observance. Courses of study include Judaic studies, English, mathematics, physics, computer science, biology, engineering and Israel studies.

AMIT Elaine Silver Technological High School

 Address: Mishol Rabbi Bar-Yochai 44, P.O. Box 700, Beersheva 84594

 Phone: 08-649-4604

 Principal: Zipi Harpenes

AMIT Elaine Silver has 115 students enrolled in grades 9-12. The school is for students who have not met academic requirements or have been expelled from their regular schools. Students have the option to study toward full matriculation or toward a 14-unit technology or vocational diploma, which is required if a student wishes to continue his/her education or to join a specialized army unit.

The school now offers three vocational tracks: Information Technology (IT), automotive electronics and computer graphics and design. The automotive electronics track is the first of its kind in Beersheva. AMIT Elaine Silver has a partnership with the Mechanics Union, which enables students to receive on-the-job training at local auto shops. In addition, a wide array of enrichment studies and initiatives are offered, including: landscaping, early childhood education, partnering with engineering students from a local college and business leadership.

AMIT Rambam Elementary School

 Address: Kodshei Baghdad 1, Beersheva 84725

 Phone: 08-643-6131; 08-642-3310

 Principal: Sharona Maymon

AMIT Rambam has over 360 students in grades 1-6. The varied student body includes native Israelis and new immigrants from the former Soviet Union and Ethiopia.

The school emphasizes individual attention and encourages each student to reach his/her potential. The school's goal is to strengthen students' roots and feelings of belonging to the Torah and to the people and Land of Israel.

In addition to academic studies, AMIT Rambam teaches values, life skills, improved language arts, violence prevention and chesed. The school has a hevruta study program and sponsors extensive social activities. Students volunteer regularly in the community and score above average on national standardized tests.

AMIT Gwen and Joseph Straus Afikim B'Negev Elementary School

 Address: HaDa'at 89, Ramot Neighborhood, Beersheva

 Phone: 08-648-2961

 Principal: Hillel Maor

AMIT Gwen and Joseph Straus Afikim B'Negev Elementary School is a vibrant and thriving elementary school that serves a diverse population of students from kindergarten through sixth grade. There are currently about 290 students at the school.

The school educates students to feel a sense of belonging to the people of Israel, to adopt Zionist values and love Israel. The school stresses Torah values, the importance of mitzvot, respect for others, tolerance and patience.

Special projects include a science enrichment program for kindergarten through third grade; extensive student council activity, in school and in the community; dance and self-defense classes; activities to promote social cohesion and health studies and programs.

AMIT Torani Madai Netivei Am Elementary School

 Address: Sderot Yerushalayim, P.O. Box 470, Beersheva

 Phone: 08-643-0771

 Principal: Orly Oshry

AMIT Netivei Am has a student body of over 265 pupils, both native Israelis and new immigrants. The teaching staff encourages students to strive for excellence, is attentive to students and is prepared to help them with educational and personal issues. Mutual assistance, chesed, success with daily challenges, personal example, joy and good will are all part of the daily school experience. The school stresses learning values through Torah study, mitzvot and social ethics.

AMIT Hazon Ovadiah Elementary School

 Address: Gush Etzion 13, P.O. Box 1128, Beersheva

 Phone: 08-627-7198

 Principal: Gadi Bakya

AMIT Hazon Ovadiah has 195 students, many of whom hail from the FSU (former Soviet Union) and Ethiopia. The school is located near an absorption center, making its population very fluid. Students attend Hazon Ovadiah while living at the absorption center and often leave the school when their families find permanent housing in a different school district.

The school has a well-developed arts program, which gives immigrant children an alternate mode of expression before they have mastered Hebrew and can express themselves verbally. The school starts teaching English in the first grade, giving students a two-year head start in English instruction.

AMIT Or Hammer Elementary School

📍 Address: Meir Yeari 50, Beersheva

☎ Phone: 08-610-9758

👤 Principal: Rabbi David Danan

AMIT Or Hammer has a population of over 305 students from kindergarten through the sixth grade. The student body is heterogeneous, and includes sabras as well as immigrants from the former Soviet Union and Ethiopia. The school instills in each child a sense of his/her own competence and ability, and encourages community involvement, helping students feel a sense of belonging to the State of Israel.

One of AMIT Or Hammer's more unique features is in teaching every child to play a musical instrument.

Neot Avraham Elementary School

📍 Address: Yavin Yehoshua 7, Beersheva

☎ Phone: 08-610-0506

👤 Principal: Eli Huta

Neot Avraham is in the new Neve Ze'ev neighborhood, situated in the southwest corner of Beersheva. Neve Ze'ev has a diverse population of religious, traditional and secular residents.

The school opened its doors on September 1, 2008 to fewer than 100 students and currently has about 380 students in grades 1-6. The school itself is co-ed, but classes for boys and girls are separate. The school emphasizes academic excellence, community involvement and parental participation.

Beit Shemesh

AMIT Shachar Junior and Senior High School for Girls

 Address: Rehov Aliyat HaNoar, P.O. Box 41, Beit Shemesh 99000

 Phone: 02-991-1735

 Principal: Sahar Sigavi

AMIT Shachar has nearly 400 students from lower- to middle-class socioeconomic backgrounds. The school provides a religious Zionist education for children from Beit Shemesh and surrounding mosahvim. In high school, students learn the standard Ministry of Education curriculum and major in one or more of the following tracks: biotechnology, computers, technology sciences, humanities, business administration, human resources, social sciences (psychology and sociology) and graphic design.

AMIT Dvir Junior and Senior High School for Boys

 Address: Rehov Aliyat HaNoar, P.O. Box 41, Beit Shemesh 99000

 Phone: 02-991-1735

 Principal: Dr. Yitzhak Levran

AMIT Dvir has over 320 students in grades 7-12. The student population consists of Israeli-born and immigrant students. The school provides religious Zionist education for students from Beit Shemesh and the surrounding areas. Study majors include computers, electronics and electricity [electrical engineering?], as well as a science track that features hands-on projects. One such program, called Encounters at the Forefront of Science, created in conjunction with the Weizmann Institute of Science, gives students the opportunity to participate in diverse laboratory experiments. Learning at the Weizmann Institute's laboratories – among the most advanced in the world – motivates students and prepares them for future university science studies.

AMIT Bellows Ulpanat Noga

 Address: Nahal Refaim 19, Ramat Beit Shemesh

 Phone: 02-992-0858

 Principal: Iris Eliyahu

AMIT Bellows Ulpanat Noga has approximately 450 students from Beit Shemesh the Mateh Yehuda region. The ulpana was established to serve girls who want to attend a local junior and senior high school rather than leave home to attend a boarding school, as many modern Orthodox teens do. The ulpana has a diverse student body, comprising new immigrants and native-born Israelis from different cultural backgrounds. The school educates both high achieving students and students with special learning needs.

Ulpanat Noga believes in active learning, the development of critical thinking and creativity and student involvement in every aspect of school life. Matriculation success rates are consistently above 90% at the school, and this past year the success rate was 96%. The unique Beit Midrash Lehava program at the school encourages students to learn both Tanach and Talmud independently and in hevrotas. The school offers a Future in Science program that provides six extra weekly instruction hours in computers, physics and math.

Givat Shmuel

Ulpanat AMIT Givat Shmuel

 Address: Menachem Begin 2

 Phone: 03-641-3559

 Principal: Chanit Freshtand

Ulpanat AMIT Givat Shmuel opened its doors in September 2011, beginning with three 7th-grade classes. The ulpana has added a new grade every year and now serves approximately 655 girls in grades 7-12. The goal for Ulpanat AMIT is to produce graduates who are academically strong while also committed to Torah and mitzvot. Ulpanat AMIT Givat Shmuel motivates its students to be independent learners and encourages study in the Beit Midrash style.

In addition to its well-rounded general and Judaic studies curricula, Ulpana AMIT Givat Shmuel offers a challenging curriculum in math, science and technology. Ulpana students have access to the latest technological equipment and tools to aid their scholastic understanding and achievement. This technology program offers students a competitive edge in the global marketplace and helps revolutionize opportunities for them.

AMIT Anna Teich Ulpanat Haifa

 Address: Derech Yad L'Banim 97, P.O. Box 45162, Haifa 31451

 Phone: 04-832-1859

 Principal: Rabbi Yaron Ben-Chaim

AMIT Anna Teich Ulpanat Haifa has approximately 255 students, including many of Ethiopian descent. The ulpana serves students from Haifa and the surrounding areas, and accepts all students who wish to attend. Ulpanat Haifa offers an intellectually challenging curriculum, including a number of excellence programs and the opportunity for high-achieving students to pursue a Bachelor's Degree in computer science or chemistry at the Technion. The school offers advanced classes in physics, computers, biology, literature, art, communications, science and technology and administration and economics.

The school has a host of social and communal activities that foster a positive atmosphere among girls from different backgrounds and encourage community involvement and volunteering. The school strives to expose girls to as many areas of interest as possible by offering leadership courses and music enrichment, including a choir, orchestra and young entrepreneur program.

Jerusalem

AMIT Frisch Beit Hayered

Address: HaShayish 9, Gilo, Jerusalem 93841

Phone: 02-676-5866

Principal: Evyatar Shaki

AMIT Frisch Beit Hayered in the Gilo neighborhood of Jerusalem is home to 100 children, ages 5 to 15. These children have been removed from their homes due to neglect, dysfunction or abuse. At Beit Hayered, these children find much needed warmth and love. Beit Hayered is responsible for all the children's daily and long-term needs - physical, educational and emotional. AMIT Frisch Beit Hayered is run with complete cooperation and supervision from the child and teen services department at the Ministry of Social Affairs and Social Services.

Based on gender and age, children are placed with normative young families at Beit Hayered, where they are provided with a nurturing and structured environment. By living in family units (mishpachtonim) along with married couples who often have their own families, children begin to develop positive, loving relationships, learn responsibility, independence and cooperation, and are able to experience the "normal" family life that they lacked with their biological parents. In addition, Beit Hayered has two units for children who reside off-campus. These children spend most of their day at Beit Hayered, enjoying the same support and opportunities as the other children. Being in emotionally healthy environments will enable these children to break out of the cycle of poverty and dysfunction, and allow them to be independent, functioning and fulfilled adults.

Midreshet AMIT@Beit Hayered

Address: HaShayish 9, Gilo, Jerusalem 93841

Phone: 02-645-0435

Principal: Ilana Gottlieb

Midreshet AMIT provides young women from the United States, England, Canada and other countries with the opportunity to experience a year of intensive Torah studies in Israel while also helping to care for some of the resident children in AMIT's care. Midreshet AMIT is housed on the Jerusalem campus of AMIT Frisch Beit Hayered, a residential childcare facility for 120 Israeli children who face difficult challenges. A staff of administrators, counselors, psychologists, social workers and young women performing national service nurture and care for the children. Midreshet AMIT students take on the role of "big sisters," with each participant finding her own unique way of touching young lives.

The program has been steadily growing in popularity among young women, and this year Midreshet AMIT has 59 participants.

AMIT Kfar Blatt Youth Village

Address: Rabbi Herzog 16, Petach Tikva 49270

Phone: 03-931-1737; 03-931-1257; 03-931-4436

Director: Amiram Cohen

AMIT Kfar Blatt Youth Village in Petach Tikva currently has over 500 students in its care, 190 of whom come from Ethiopian families. This includes students in grades 7-12 who attend the junior and senior high school, as well as students in the junior college (grades 13-14). These students come from neglectful, dysfunctional and even abusive families. Many of the students live on campus under the care of young couples who serve as their surrogate parents.

The mishpachton is a family unit with a married couple and 16-18 boys or girls who live together in their own apartment with a living and dining room, kitchen and bedrooms, as well as a small apartment for the surrogate parents. They eat their meals, do their laundry and chores and spend their free time there together with their "family."

There is also a pnimiat yom (daycare) program at AMIT Blatt Youth Village. This program is for students who do not live on campus, but receive all the services, including meals, throughout the day that on-campus students receive.

The village teaches Torah, Religious Zionism and mutual respect, and aims to help each student reach his/her true potential. In addition to the surrogate parents, the village employs social workers, psychologists and guidance counselors who provide intervention, support and direction, as needed.

The village administration places great emphasis on its informal activities. The student council is an elected body and is very active on campus. There are also several student committees that are involved in planning and determining the way of life in the village. Students have a wide range of electives to choose from, including music, sports, drama, dance, electronics, computers, hair styling, fashion design and biking.

AMIT Wurzweiler Agricultural and Technological High School

Address: Rabbi Herzog 16, Petach Tikva 49270

Phone: 03-934-0029

Principal: Maya Avivi

AMIT Wurzweiler is on the campus of the Kfar Blatt Youth Village. The school offers a wide range of courses of study, enabling each student to work at his/her own level. With over 510 students the school offers a full bagrut track or a technology or vocational diploma. Vocational tracks include life sciences and agriculture, auto mechanics, administration and industrial management. While most of the students come from very difficult family situations and start this school at low academic levels, the number of students matriculating is on the rise. This impressive trend is due to the hard work of students and teachers who engage in intensive study sessions after school to prepare for these exams. Upon graduation, students can choose to attend the junior college, where they can earn a vocational certificate which they can use in the army and later in life.

Majors include medical office administration; automotive mechanics; automotive technology; and industrial engineering/operations systems. Upon successful completion of their studies, students earn a Ministry of Education technician's diploma. This makes it possible for graduates to obtain mid- to high-level positions in line with their expertise in the IDF or national service – enriching their personal experiences as well as their social value. In addition to the vocational studies, students also receive leadership training, religious study and physical fitness training.

AMIT Menorat HaMaor Haredi Track

 Address: Rabbi Herzog 16, Petach Tikva 49270

 Principal: Ilan Hamami

Situated on the Kfar Blatt campus in Petach Tikva, Menorat HaMaor is a specialized school for Haredi youth. The school currently serves 132 students in grades 9-12. The Haredi track caters to students who found that full-time yeshiva studies did not suit their needs. The goal for Haredi students is to complete a full bagrut or the 14-point technician's diploma or IT diploma. All students are encouraged to further their studies at a Junior College. To enhance their job viability, AMIT Menorat HaMaor has been participating in the American Embassy-sponsored English Enrichment program for the last three years.

The Ellen and Stanley Wasserman Campus of the AMIT Kfar Blatt Youth Village

 Address: Yerushalayim 1, Ra'anana

 Phone: 09-774-7111

 Principal: Dr. Tzvi Yarbloom

AMIT's Kfar Batya campus is the site where AMIT history began. Bessie "Batya" Gotsfeld established Kfar Batya in 1945, after World War II, as a village for Holocaust survivor children. Today, AMIT Kfar Batya Youth Village has nearly 1,300 students, ages 6 to 18 (grades 1-12), and features dormitories, multiple educational and therapeutic programs and housing. The village has beautiful, spacious grounds and students enjoy its natural setting daily. There are students who live on campus and students who live in the surrounding communities.

Ra'anana

AMIT Renanim Junior and Senior Science and Technology High School for Girls

Address: Rehov HaPalmach, P.O. Box 823, Ra'anana

Phone: 09-748-5742

Principal: Ofra Pe'er

AMIT Renanim Science and Technology High School for Girls has approximately 670 students in grades 7-12. The school integrates science and art studies in a unique religious atmosphere. Renanim's diverse majors include physics, biology, chemistry, computer science, technology sciences, communications, art, social sciences, French and information technology.

New immigrants make up 30% of the student body. Students hail from around the world: France, Spain, Morocco, Belgium, the United States, England, Iran, Finland, Italy, South Africa, Brazil and Holland.

AMIT Renanim, in collaboration with the Ra'anana Municipality, the Ministry of Education and the AMIT Network, has implemented numerous programs to help new immigrant students acclimate to life in Israel and thrive as new Israelis. Many new immigrant families choose to settle in the city of Ra'anana so that their daughters can attend AMIT Renanim.

AMIT Bienenfeld Hevruta Yeshiva, Kfar Batya

Address: Rehov Yerushalayim, P.O. Box 17, Ra'anana

Phone: 09-771-8341

Principal: Rabbi Avinoam Almagor

AMIT Bienenfeld Hevruta Yeshiva currently has 135 students in grades 9-12. The school's philosophy and educational approach is to nurture students and facilitate the development of their intellectual abilities, according to Gardner's Multiple Intelligences: musical-rhythmic, visual-spatial, verbal-linguistic, logical-mathematical, bodily-kinesthetic, interpersonal, intrapersonal and naturalistic. This unique approach gives students the values, tools and skills they need for productive and fulfilling lives. Hevruta is proud of its 100% IDF enlistment rate. About 90% of graduates defer the army for a year or more to attend pre-army preparatory programs or yeshivot. Most then go on to serve in prestigious combat units and many become IDF officers.

Hevruta currently has three tracks: music, animal training and environmental studies. Students work toward certification in these areas, while also pursuing academic studies that suit their abilities and personal objectives. While a full bagrut program is not mandatory at Hevruta, more and more students are deciding to pursue full matriculation.

In the spring, students in the environmental studies track embark on their 50-day, 1,000-kilometer trek from Eilat in the south to Mount Hermon in the north. While the hike is supervised, students must fend for themselves in many ways: cooking, cleaning and washing their clothes are just a few examples. In addition, students are challenged physically and mentally as they encounter the trials of nature, weather, living with fellow students in close quarters and testing the limits of their own endurance.

AMIT Gwen Straus Junior. and Senior Science High School for Boys, Kfar Batya

 Address: Rehov Yerushalayim, P.O. Box 17, Ra'anana

 Phone: 09-771-2658

 Head of School: Rabbi Yoni Berlin

AMIT Gwen Straus is located on the Kfar Batya campus in Ra'anana. The school serves native Israelis as well as a significant number of new immigrants, mainly from France, the U.S., England and South Africa. The school has approximately 590 7th-12th grade students in two tracks:

The AMIT Gwen Straus Science and Technology High School Track is headed by Sagi Rosenbaum. The school offers the highest levels of science and technology studies, mathematics, English, Arabic and Middle East studies, along with a rich Jewish studies program. Each student at the school is required to do at least one bagrut-level science track in physics, biology or chemistry, and at least one bagrut-level technology track in biotechnology, medicine or computer science. Over 90% of students matriculate successfully, and an impressive 30% graduate with Ministry of Education honors.

In addition to rigorous academics, the school encourages community involvement and taking an active role in helping others and improving Israeli society. Students are also encouraged to realize their intellectual potential and develop their curiosity and creativity through a wide range of innovative and engaging endeavors.

Yaron Carmi heads the AMIT School of Society and Law track at Gwen Straus. The track combines academic excellence and religious observance, while encouraging students to realize their potential in humanities, social studies and law. It educates toward a worldview of religious commitment and open-mindedness, and is focused on actively engaging students in the learning process. The school emphasizes mutual trust between teachers and students, open communication and inclusion.

AMIT Noam, Kfar Batya

 Address: Rehov Yerushalayim, P.O. Box 17, Ra'anana

 Phone: 09-771-3014

 Principal: Ayelet Ofir

AMIT Noam was established over a decade ago and currently has about 380 students in grades 1-6. The school is located on the AMIT Kfar Batya campus and instills the love of Torah, belief in the Almighty and encourages educational excellence in all areas. The quality of education is apparent in the unique curriculum and in the teaching staff that serve as role models for students.

AMIT Orot Shaul Hesder Yeshiva

 Address: Rehov Yerushalayim, AMIT Kfar Batya, Ra'anana

 Principal: Rabbi Yuval Cherlow, Rabbi Tamir Granot

AMIT Orot Shaul Hesder Yeshiva is located on the AMIT Kfar Batya campus in Ra'anana. Established in 1998, it currently has 131 students. AMIT Orot Shaul seeks to inspire its students to become Torah scholars and communal leaders with a deep sense of accountability toward Am Yisrael. Justice, compassion and social responsibility are the core values of the yeshiva's educational philosophy.

The yeshiva is known for its unique style of learning, taking high-level intellectual learning and imbuing it with meaning and passion. The yeshiva is also known for the warm, friendly environment where each student is made to feel comfortable and accepted. Orot Shaul strives to instill potential in terms of learning, leadership and commitment to the state and people of Israel.

The yeshiva is led by Rabbis Yuval Cherlow and Tamir Granot. Rabbi Cherlow's trademark is the synthesis of Torah study with ethics and social activism. He was one of the founders of Tzohar, a national movement of 1,000 Zionist rabbis and women volunteers who are leading the revolution for an ethical, inclusive and inspiring Jewish Israel. He also serves as a member of several government ethics committees, as well as the Presidential Press Council of Israel. Rabbi Granot's uniqueness lies in his ability to combine the traditional way of learning with modern academic techniques alongside the extensive study of Hasidut.

AMIT Ginsburg Bar Ilan Gush Dan Junior and Senior High School for Boys

 Address: Jabotinsky 99, Givat Shmuel RAMAT GAN

 Phone: 03-532-5822

 Principal: Tomer Shuper

AMIT Ginsburg Bar Ilan Gush Dan was founded in 1978 and currently serves 550 students in grades 7-12. The school's vision is to nurture the next generation of leaders in Israel, while strengthening students' religious and Zionist identities and deepening their involvement in the community and society.

The school offers high-level science and technology majors, including electronics, biotechnology, information technology and communications, as well as advanced physics, chemistry, biology, computers, mathematics and English. Students are strongly encouraged to present a final research project that counts toward their bagrut diploma and is considered a plus by universities. A special partnership with Bar-Ilan University makes it possible for exceptional students to study toward a bachelor's degree in mathematics while still in high school. Eleventh- and twelfth-graders who excel academically can also take a range of courses at the university.

AMIT Ramle Technological High School

 Address: Abba Akhimeir 2, P.O. Box 300, Ramle 72102

 Phone: 08-922-7952

 Principal: Yizhar Afgan

AMIT Ramle Technological High School is a vocational school for students who have not met academic requirements or have been expelled from their regular schools. The goal at AMIT Ramle is to empower its 232 students to become self-sufficient, productive members of Israeli society. The school focuses on making sure each student attains a vocation. Students can choose from one of four tracks: culinary, hairstyling and cosmetology, business administration and electronics. Within each track, students have the option of either graduating with a 14-point technological diploma or a full-matriculation diploma.

Since 2012, AMIT Ramle has offered a military cadet program, in cooperation with the Israel Defense Forces Logistics Corps. Upon graduation from high school, the cadets enlist in the IDF Logistics Corp. This special track, which requires students to dress in full IDF uniform at school and engage in an in-depth study of logistics, motivates students and keeps them focused on a goal. This is particularly important for AMIT Ramle students, who have not met academic requirements at previous high schools before enrolling at AMIT Ramle. The program also ensures that students will do meaningful and fulfilling service in the IDF, and hopefully reach senior and officer positions.

AMIT Hallel Junior and Senior High School for Girls

Principal: Rafi Maimon

AMIT Hammer was established in 1971. The school has 540 students in grades

7-12. The student body is diverse and comprises students from affluent families, as well as Ethiopian immigrants and students from disadvantaged homes. The schools emphasize values education. Students are involved in a variety of chesed projects allowing them to develop their humanitarian values and internalize a sense of social solidarity.

The school offers all academic subjects as well as bagrut tracks in electronics, computer science and literature. All students do a 5-point bagrut in Oral Law.

Program: AMIT Tiferet Gur Arye Junior College, Rehovot

 Program Director: Tzuri Levy

In 2014, a pre-army junior college program was established at AMIT Tiferet Gur Arye Junior College. The two-year program currently has 80 students. The program is run in cooperation with the Israeli Air Force and Jerusalem College of Technology's Machon Lev. Students study electronics and electrical engineering. Upon completion of their studies, students have the skills to qualify for a technician or junior engineer certificate. The AMIT Rehovot program was conceived to enable students to combine religious studies and vocational/technological studies. The goal of cooperation with Machon Lev is to enable outstanding students to continue their academic studies at the college after their service in the IDF.

Yeshivat AMIT Amichai

 Address: Meginei HaGalil 2, Rehovot 76217

 Principal: Rabbi Shimon Shushan

In September 2007, Yeshivat AMIT Amichai opened to one 7th grade class. Each year since, a grade was added with the goal of turning the school into a full junior and senior high school. The yeshiva reached that goal and now has a complete high school – grades 7-12. With a student enrollment of 415, Yeshivat AMIT Amichai educates students to love Torah, Israel and one's fellow man; commitment to mitzvot and building a religious Zionist identity are also key elements. The yeshiva encourages intellectual curiosity and recognizes the importance of spirituality, the arts and sciences in students' lives. AMIT Amichai was one of the first schools to join the Gogya Center initiative, AMIT'S hub for educational innovation and teacher development, located on the AMIT Kfar Batya campus in Ra'anana.

Each year, Israel's Ministry of Education publicly recognizes junior and senior high schools throughout Israel for their integrity, values and achievement. This year, Yeshivat AMIT Amichai was one of three AMIT schools to achieved that high-ranking honor.

AMIT Sderot Religious Junior and Senior High School

 Address: Nir-Am Neighborhood, P.O. Box 40, Sderot

 Phone: 08-689-7077; 08-689-9277

 Principal: Moti Arbel

AMIT is the sole religious Zionist educational network in Sderot for both elementary and secondary levels. AMIT Sderot Junior and Senior High School has 54 students in grades 7-12. A significant segment of the school's population is from the former Soviet Union and Ethiopia. The school includes four tracks: Leadership High School for Boys, Yeshiva High School, Ulpana with a focus on academic studies, and Ulpanat Shirat, with a focus on intensive Judaic studies.

Since AMIT Sderot first joined the AMIT Network, matriculation success rates have increased from a low of 20% to an astonishing 83%. This is significantly above the national average and is an impressive accomplishment, taking into consideration the constant threat of missile attack and the inherent stress that comes from living so close to the Gaza border. Student enrollment is increasing as well; families who once sent their children out of Sderot for high school are now keeping them in the town. The school collaborates with several organizations and foundations to provide challenging educational enrichments. These partnerships include programs in leadership, robotics, cyber and land of Israel studies.

AMIT Sderot Gutwirth Junior and Senior High School

 Address: Shar HaYeshuv Street

 Phone: 08-689-8044

 Principal: Eddie Dagan

AMIT Sderot Gutwirth Junior and Senior High School joined the AMIT Network in the fall of 2005, and is the only secular junior and senior high school in the city. The school has 800 students and caters to an ethnically diverse population, new immigrants, children whose families have lived in Israel for generations and students from both well-established and poverty-stricken homes. The school's motto is Derech Eretz Kadma L'Torah, meaning good manners, politeness and treating others with kindness and consideration. Democratic values, love of country and Jewish tradition are emphasized.

There are programs for highly gifted students and programs that help prevent students from dropping out of school. Emphasis is based on the sciences, computer education and, for those in need, the development of basic academic skills in Hebrew, math and English studies. In the 7th grade, students research their family history in preparation for their bar and bat mitzvah. At the high school level, subjects such as biotechnology, economics, social studies, media and communications, mathematics, English, computers and Russian are offered at different academic levels. Since the school has joined the AMIT Network, it has witnessed a vast improvement in bagrut scores.

The school has recently added a two-year junior college where graduates can study industrial and management and practical engineering. There are currently 30 students attending the college, which aims to increase the student body annually.

AMIT HaRoeh Elementary School

 Address: Rehov Sinai, P.O. Box 120, Sderot 80100

 Phone: 08-689-7285

 Principal: Eric Azulai

AMIT HaRoeh has 210 students from grades 1-6. Many students are recent immigrants from the former Soviet Union and Ethiopia. The school accepts all applicants regardless of Jewish religious observance or educational ability.

AMIT HaRoeh offers a special literacy program of one-on-one and group tutoring for weaker students and new immigrants. It also offers extra instruction in math and reading to bring students up to grade level.

AMIT Torani Mada'i Elementary School

 Address: Rehov HaDekel, P.O. Box 640, Sderot 80100

 Phone: 08-661-1133

 Principal: Dina Houri

AMIT Torani Mada'i has about 215 students in grades 1-6. The school offers a wide range of enrichment programs: sciences, astronomy and chemistry; English language beginning in first grade; music and art; extracurricular activities to develop reasoning and thinking; and a special program in entrepreneurship for fifth- and sixth-graders in which students design, produce and try to market a new product.

AMIT Torani Chadash Elementary School

 Address: Mishol HaPaamonit 15, Sderot

 Phone: 08-689-7163

 Principal: Yacov Shitrit

AMIT Torani Chadash has about 455 students in grades 1-6. Most the students are third- or fourth-generation Israelis, but the school has also welcomed recent immigrant children from Ethiopia. The school is co-ed, but classes are separated by gender. AMIT Torani Chadash offers a full curriculum, and the school day includes two extra hours of Judaic studies. Weaker students are tutored one-on-one by students from the AMIT ulpana and yeshiva streams.

AMIT Gil Rabin Elementary School

 Address: Moshe Dayan 903, Sderot

 Phone: 08-689-7079

 Principal: Etti Azran

There are 170 students, in grades 1-6, studying at AMT Gil Rabin. The school encourages students to develop their curiosity; engage in challenging learning; and expand their knowledge in science and technology. AMIT Gil Rabin uses innovative pedagogy and instructional methods to impart 21st-century knowledge and skills.

AMIT Shikmim Maoz Arts Elementary School

 Address: Yehoshua Ben-Nun 3, Sderot

 Phone: 08-689-7043

 Principal: Sima Shoshan

AMIT Shikmim Maoz has 275 students in grades 1-6. The school focuses on the arts, and provides a welcoming, caring and respectful atmosphere as the basis for all learning. Students are taught at a young age to contribute to society, be sensitive to others and love their country.

AMIT Alon Science Elementary School

 Address: KKL 906, Sderot

 Phone: 08-689-4317

 Principal: Leora Pima

AMIT Alon, with a student body of 275 pupils, focuses on science and technology, encouraging inquisitiveness and independent thinking in students. The school helps to develop environmental awareness as students learn about sustainability and their responsibility to the world around them. Parents are encouraged to be active and involved members of the school community.

Shoham

The AMIT Beatrice and Irving Stone Meysharim School

📍 Address: HaLapid 16, Shoham

👤 Principal: Michal Klil HaHoresh

The AMIT Beatrice and Irving Stone Meysharim School currently serves 105 students, ages 12-21, who come from over 50 different towns and cities – anywhere between Gedera and Hadera (about a 100-kilometer span north to south through the center of the country). This is a special-education school for students who are academically, behaviorally and emotionally challenged. The students are divided into classes according to age and educational level. The school has three main goals: academic achievement and closing learning gaps; teaching students the life skills necessary for future independence and employability; and ensuring their emotional health through therapy and other activities. There is a wide range of therapy available, including movement therapy, music therapy, art therapy, psychodrama and greenhouse therapy. Sessions focus on self-image, social interactions and adaptation.

The school population is made up of students from Tzfat and the neighboring communities of Marom HaGalil and Hazor HaGlilit. AMIT Florin Taman aims to give each student an equal opportunity to realize his potential. The school emphasizes mutual respect, love of Torah, love of Israel and love Tzfat. The school offers majors in the sciences, electronic systems and general technology. A number of students participate in a medical track in conjunction with the new Bar-Ilan University Medical School in Tzfat.

AMIT Florin Taman Junior and Senior High School for Girls

📍 Address: Rehov HaKaf Bet, P.O. Box 123, Tzfat 13101

☎ Phone: 04-697-1272

👤 Principal: Yehuda Peles (acting principal); Yaffa Farjun-Shemesh (on sabbatical)

AMIT Florin Taman Junior and Senior High School for Girls offers a dual track program: a standard academic track and an intensive Jewish studies ulpana track. There are 400 students in the school who come from Tzfat and the neighboring communities of Marom HaGalil and Hazor HaGlilit. The school's philosophy is that all students can succeed when facilitated by teachers who believe in them and are committed to their achievement. Each student has a personal scholastic profile that assists teachers in individualizing teaching and learning. The school emphasizes dialogue among students, teachers and administrators, and has implemented practices to encourage dialogue, such as an “open-door” policy of approachable faculty members, conversation corners and personal mentoring. Several students participate in a medical track in conjunction with the new Bar-Ilan University Medical School in Tzfat.

In 2015, the school won the Ministry of Education National Education Award for outstanding achievement.

AMIT Tzfat Evelyn Schreiber Junior and Senior Ulpana High School Track

📍 Address: Rehov HaKaf Bet, P.O. Box 123, Tzfat 13101

☎ Phone: 04-697-1272

👤 Rosh Ulpana: Rabbi Yehuda Peles

The AMIT Tzfat Evelyn Schreiber school is operated autonomously within the AMIT Tzfat Junior and Senior High School, and currently serves 180 girls. The ulpana fosters an atmosphere that both challenges and encourages students to grow as young women, achieve academically and make a difference in their school and community. Matriculation (bagrut) success rates at the ulpana are consistently around 100%, which means almost all students pass their matriculation exams every year. The ulpana offers a wide range of Torah and Judaic studies and general academic studies. Recently added study majors include communication and film, a medical track in conjunction with the new Bar-Ilan medical school in Tzfat, a law track, a physics track and a biology track.

 Address: Rehov HaRambam, corner of HaRav Kook

 Phone: 08-658-3583

 Principal: Toni Mittelman (acting principal); Shula Levy (on sabbatical)

The Kamah School for girls was established in 2006 in the Negev town of Yeruham. Kamah is an Orthodox school run in accordance with halacha and belongs to the State Religious School system. The school's aim is to empower girls to integrate into all walks of life in Israel, such as combining family and career and the service of their choice after graduation: the IDF or national service. Study of Gemarah, Torah, history and secular subjects such as art and music are taught in an innovative, interdisciplinary manner. This school serves approximately 220 students who come from Yeruham, Dimona and even from Beersheva.

Midreshet AMIT Be'er

 Address: Rehov Rambam, Yeruham

 Phone: 08-658-9037

 Principal: Tamar Biton

Midreshet AMIT Be'er is a "Hesder Yeshiva" for girls, and attracts religious girls from all over Israel. The school integrates intensive Judaic studies, community involvement, engagement in social issues and full service in the IDF. The three-year Midreshet Be'er program was established in 2001, and has 38 on-site students, as well as students currently serving in the army. The program has hundreds of graduates, educated religious women who study Torah and are involved in the community.

Midreshet Be'er teaches young women to feel at home in the world of Torah and to be involved, creative and productive members of Israeli society. It aims to empower women as leaders in modern Orthodox society. The school inspires girls to take part in the "Beit Midrash" world in a committed and intensive manner. Midreshet Be'er also aims to develop the Negev by encouraging graduates to settle in Yeruham and surrounding areas. Midreshet Be'er wants to encourage educated and involved religious people from the center of the country to move to the Negev.
